Former St. Sebastian Parish School Student Speaks at First Friday Club

AKRON, Ohio –

The First Friday Club of Greater Akron welcomed student speakers from four area high schools to celebrate Catholic Schools Week. All 8th grade students attended the February luncheon.

Four high school seniors spoke on the topic, Encountering God: Reflections of Catholic High School Students. Meghan Caprez, a 2007 graduate of St. Sebastian Parish School who is now attending Our Lady of the Elms High School, was one of the featured student speakers. Her sister, Kay (2009 St. Sebastian graduate), and her brother, Matt, an 8th grade student at St. Sebastian Parish School, were in the audience for the presentation.

The First Friday Club of Greater Akron's purpose is to bring the best Catholic thinkers, teachers, and leaders to Akron on a monthly basis to promote a better understanding of the significant issues impacting church, family, work, and community life. The luncheon series is in its eleventh year and consistently draws an average of 200 to 250 people from Summit County and surrounding counties. It also provides a service to the community and encourages attendance within the community when there are topics of interest.
