O11 Shakedown The Thunder: A Notre Dame Experience of a Lifetime

Four lucky people will win the opportunity to experience a Notre Dame football weekend that other Fighting Irish fans can only dream about.

Your weekend begins on Friday, November 18th, when you arrive at the University of Notre Dame for an exclusive football luncheon with Head Coach Kelly.

After lunch, your tour guide will then take you to meet Mike Garvey of Notre Dame Magazine to hear the storied histories of the University and its most famous sites and heroes. Then you're off for a tour of the campus and stadium where we have even made arrangements for you to run through the famous "tunnel"

Incredibly, your next stop is a "Meet and Greet" with Father Theodore Hesburgh, who has held 16 presidential appointments; served four popes; and was awarded the nation's highest civilian honor, the Medal of Freedom, and the Congressional Gold Medal.. A photographer will be on hand to capture this very special event.

Later that Friday evening, your tour guide will take you to see “Trumpets under the Dome” and then you are off to an exclusive pep-rally cocktail reception.

On Saturday you will start your day with a private tour of the Notre Dame Stadium locker room, where you can touch the famous “Play Like a Champion” sign, then relax at the exclusive pre-game party before your guide takes you to greet the players as they leave mass on their way to the stadium. Hear the “Fight Song” at the “Concert on the Steps,” then, with pre-game field passes in hand, you’ll head to the field to watch the team at its pre-game warm up. Now, this what you’re really there for: As the stadium fills for the game, you’ll take your seats on the 30-yard line to watch the Fighting Irish battle Boston College for a great Saturday afternoon of honest-to-goodness Irish football.

On Sunday you’re invited to attend mass at the Basilica and you will be among the first to see the new Compton Ice Arena with four tickets to the Brian Boitano Skating Extravaganza featuring the band Chicago performing with the Notre Dame Band. This event will be taped and televised on NBC in December, where you might even see yourself in the audience.

This experience is complete with two rooms at the Waterford Estate Lodge, one mile from campus.
