CATHOLIC SCHOOLS WEEK OPEN HOUSE

St. Sebastian Parish School and the St. Sebastian Center for Early Learning will kick-off their Catholic Schools Week celebration with an Open House this Sunday, January 29th beginning at 10AM until noon. Meet our outstanding faculty, tour the school and learn more about our academic and extra-curricular programs. All are welcome to stop by.

INTERNATIONAL FESTIVAL

The reason we are able to afford to do this is because of our Sanctuary Society, which I thank most deeply. In addition, the reason the Sanctuary Society is able to provide the funding is because you support their events such as the International Festival that is coming up February 4. In fact, it is the 50th Annual Festival! This fundraiser is a fun evening for the entire Parish. The Sanctuary Society is asking for volunteers to help run games, the prize table, sell baked goods and more! Volunteer positions are available in one-hour shifts, so you are able to participate and enjoy the festival as well. Look for information on how to volunteer on our parish website.

JOAN OF b'ARC

Thank you for being so great with Joan who was the special guest star at the Spaghetti Dinner. My sister recommended that I take a picture of her that mirrors one that I took at Christmas to show you how much she has grown so here it is!

FROM THE FORGOTTEN CABINET

Today is a letter on onionskin paper that was a copy of a letter sent from Monsignor Zwisler to the Coca Cola Bottling Works at 101 N. High Street, February 1, 1931:

Dear Sirs:

Below is the cost of repairing the sidewalk broken by the driver of your delivery wagon while delivering some goods to our school building last August.

From Fairlawn Supply Co.
 1 piece of blue flagstone . . . $7.50
 V. G. Faris (Stonemason) 93 Atlas St.
 4 hours labor @ $1 $4.00
 Nick Shero (Helper) 500 Mull Ave.
 4 hours labor @ .40 $1.60
 TOTAL: $13.10

Trusting that you will take care of this for us, we remain,

Yours very truly,

Pastor.
